

// for monday.com solution partners & resellers

Earn recurring revenue from monday.com apps your clients already need.

Fortimus builds sticky, founder-supported apps for the monday.com marketplace. Refer or co-sell them to your clients and earn on every sale — and every renewal after.

// recurring

On every sale — and every renewal.

Commission for the life of the account, plus free app licenses and custom build requests. No tiers, no fees, no lock-in.

// what you get

01 15% recurring commission

Paid on the initial sale and every renewal, for as long as the client stays subscribed.

02 Free app licenses

Full access for your team, demos and internal use — at no cost to you.

03 Custom requests

Need something specific for a client? We build it — often before you have to ask twice.

// why it works for partners

01 Sticky

Once items, files and automations flow through Fortimus, removing it breaks real workflows.

02 Recurring

Subscription pricing means renewals every month — not a one-time setup fee.

03 Low-touch

We handle support, updates and roadmap. You keep the client relationship.

Mirror Item Multiple Boards

Connect items across boards — fully two-way synced.

// full sync

- ✓ Add an item to multiple boards
Place the same item on as many boards as a workflow needs, in one move.
- ✓ Build a master board
Roll items from many boards into one master view for oversight and reporting.
- ✓ Sync updates everywhere
Edit on any board and every mirrored copy updates instantly, both ways.
- ✓ Promote subitems to items
Turn a subitem into a full item on another board, kept linked and in sync.

Google Drive Integration + Sync

Mirror boards and files into Google Drive automatically.

// auto-sync

- ✓ Sync files board → Drive
Push files from monday items straight into Google Drive as they're added.
- ✓ Mirror your board hierarchy
Recreate a board's exact structure as a matching hierarchy in Drive.
- ✓ Auto-create folder structures
Generate folders, subfolders and nested folders without manual setup.

// what customers say

This app is great — it works exactly as it should. But the real signifier is the customer support. Arnav is incredible. He added capabilities to this app without me even asking — he saw a need and delivered without request!

The company is incredibly responsive and helpful — email response almost immediately. The app is structured very logically, works well, and is something monday needed. I would not have been able to build out a planning board without this feature.
